Q.1) Ans: B

Exp:

Statement 1 is incorrect: It is a constitutional body. 102nd Constitution Amendment Act, 2018 provides constitutional status to the National Commission for Backward Classes (NCBC). For this purpose amendment inserted a new article 338-B in the constitution.

Statements 2 is incorrect: Previously NCBC was a statutory body under the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment.

Statement 3 is correct: The Commission consists of five members including a Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson and three other Members appointed by the President by warrant under his hand and seal. The conditions of service and tenure of office of the Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson and other Members is determined by the President.

Q.2) Ans: C

Exp:

- Options 1, 2, 3 and 6 are correct: The Election Commission administers elections to the Lok Sabha, Rajya Sabha, State Legislative Assemblies (including Delhi), State Legislative Councils and the offices of the President and Vice President of the country.
- Option 4 and 5 are not correct: According to Article 243K and Article 243-ZA, the superintendence, direction and control of the preparation of electoral rolls for, and the conduct of, all elections to the Municipalities and Panchayats shall be vested in the State Election Commission consisting of a State Election Commissioner to be appointed by the Governor

Q.3) Ans: D

Exp:

- Statements 1,2 and 4 are correct: The following is a non-exhaustive list of the various functions of the election commission of India:
 - To determine the territorial areas of the electoral constituencies throughout the country on the basis of the Delimitation Commission act of parliament.
 - To notify the dates and schedules of elections and to scrutinize nomination papers
 - To register political parties for the purpose of elections and grant them the status of national or state parties on the basis of their poll performance.
 - To advise the president whether elections can be held in a state under president's rule in order to extend the period of emergency after one year
 - To advise the president on matters relating to the disqualifications of the members of parliament.
 - To appoint officers for inquiring into disputes relating to electoral arrangements.
 - To act as a court for settling disputes related to granting of recognition to political parties and allotment of election symbols to them
 - To cancel polls in the event of rigging, booths capturing, violence and other irregularities.
- Statement 3 is incorrect: The ECI in a recent affidavit, pointed out to the Supreme Court that Section 29A of the Representation of People Act provides for procedure of registration of political parties, but it does not expressly confer any power on the Election Commission regarding deregistration of political parties. The Election Commission went on to demand that it must be empowered to deregister a political party if it violates provisions of the Constitution and refuses to bring reforms to maintain inner party democracy.

Q.4) Ans: A

Exp:

- Statement 1 is correct: According to article 324 of the constitution the chief election commissioner shall not be removed from his office except in like manner and on the grounds as a judge of the supreme court and the conditions of service of the chief election commissioner shall not be varied to his disadvantage after his appointment.
- Statements 2 is incorrect: The constitution has not prescribed the qualifications (legal, educational administrative or judicial) of the members of the election commission. The supreme court, recently pointed out that, there is a "gap" due to the lack of a parliamentary law which transparently spells out the eligibility criteria required for a person to be an election commissioner and that there is a "legitimate expectation in the Constitution of India" that Election Commissioner should be appointed through the "most transparent and just process" formalised by a law enacted by the Parliament.
- Statements 3 and 4 are incorrect: The constitution has not prescribed the term and conditions of service of the Election Commission members. The Election commission (CONDITIONS OF SERVICE OF ELECTION COMMISSIONERS AND TRANSACTION OF BUSINESS) Act, 1991, stipulates that the members of the election commission shall hold office for a term of 6 years or until they attend the age of 65 years, whichever is earlier. The act further stipulates various conditions of service of the members of the election commission.

Q.5) Ans: D

Exp:

- Statement 1 is incorrect: Article 324 provides the Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) only with security of tenure. He cannot be removed from his office except in the same manner and on the same ground as a judge of the supreme court and the service conditions of the CEC cannot be varied to his disadvantage after his appointment. The Other election commissioners however, can be removed from office on the recommendation of the CEC.

- Statement 2 is correct: According to article 324(6), the Governor of a State, shall, when so requested by the Election Commission, make available to the Election Commission or to a Regional Commissioner such staff as may be necessary for the discharge of the functions conferred on the Election Commission by clause
- Statement 3 is incorrect: The constitution of India has not debarred the retiring election commissioners from any further appointment by the government. This makes them susceptible to political pressure from the ruling government during their respective terms.

Exp:

Statement 1 is incorrect: Initially NCBC was a statutory body established under the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, but later 102nd Constitution Amendment Act, 2018 provided constitutional status to the National Commission for Backward Classes (NCBC). Thus NCBC is a Constitutional body.

Statement 2 is incorrect: The Second Backward classes' commission or Mandal commission recommended that the members of OBC be granted reservations to 27 % of jobs under the Central government and public sector undertakings. The First backward classes commission is called the Kaka Kelkar commission.

Statement 3 is incorrect: Mandal commission or the Socially and Educationally Backward Classes commission was established with a mandate to "identify the socially or educationally backward classes" of India.

However, if the motion is brought by any other person, the consent in writing of the Attorney General or the Advocate General is required.
- Statement 2 is Correct : The AG's consent is mandatory when a private citizen wants to initiate a case of contempt of court against a person. Before such a plea can be filed, the Attorney General must sign off on the complaint, determining if it requires the attention of the court at all. However, when the court itself initiates a contempt of court case, the AG's consent is not required. This is because the court is exercising its inherent powers under the Constitution to punish for contempt and such Constitutional powers cannot be restricted because the AG declined to grant consent

- Statement 3 is Incorrect: If the Attorney General denies consent, the matter all but ends. The complainant can, however, separately bring the issue to the notice of the court and urge the court to take suo motu (on its own motion) cognizance. If the court does take suo motu cognizance, as it did in the case of Prashant Bhushan, the consent of the senior-most law officer is not required.

- Option B is correct: Apatani, Zabo, Dighis, Paar, Jampoies are the various traditional water management systems. They are found in different geographical locations and hence are named differently. Apatani is associated with the Eastern Himalayas. Zabo is linked to the Northeastern Hill ranges. Dighis are the water harvesting systems found in the Indo-gangetic plains. Paar is associated with the Thar Desert region. Jampoies are related to the Brahmaputra Valley.

- Statement 1 is incorrect: National Bank for Financing Infrastructure and Development (NABFID) is a Developmental Financial Institution that seeks to provide long term finance to various sectors for infrastructure development. It is set up as a corporate body with initial central government shareholding of 100%. It would provide investment to the infrastructure projects under the National Infrastructure Pipeline. The chairperson of the NABFID would be appointed by the Central Government in consultation with the RBI. Commercial banks are set up under the Companies Act whereas NABFID is set up under the specialized acts enacted for this purpose.
- Statement 2 is incorrect: NABFID can raise money in the form of loans and otherwise. It can raise finance both in Indian and foreign currencies. It can also issue various financial instruments like the Bonds, debentures, etc. for the purpose of its financing.
- Statement 3 is incorrect: The aim of the NABFID is not just to lend but also to invest or attract investments in various sectors for the development of infrastructure. It can finance the projects situated not just within India but also projects that are partly located in India.

- Statement 1 is incorrect: National Payments Corporation of India or the NPCI is the umbrella entity for settling all retail payments and settlements systems of India. It has been incorporated under the Payments and Settlements Act, 2007. It is a not-for-profit company established under the Companies Act, 1956 (now 2013). It was an initiative of the RBI and the Indian Banks' Association (IBA). Several payment related platforms are operated by the NPCI which includes the Rupay cards, Unified Payment Interface, Bharat Bill Payments, FASTag, National Automated Clearing House, National Financial Switch, Aadhar Enabled Payments, etc. It has not incorporated as the Critical Payment Infrastructure Company as such. However, it was the Watal Committee that suggested the classification of the NPCI as the Critical Payment Infrastructure Company of India.

- Statement 1 is incorrect: Bond is a fixed income instrument that is used by a borrower to raise a loan. It can be issued by a corporation or the government. It has a maturity date on which the issuer pays the entire face value of the bond to the investor. The coupon rate refers to the rate of interest the issuer pays to the investor. Generally, the term bond is used to refer to the government bonds. Bond yield refers to the return offered on the investment in a bond. It is inversely proportional to the Bond prices. When the demand for a bond is higher, its price falls in the secondary market and hence its yield is increased and vice versa. Greater yield of Bond compared to the stocks of a Company shifts the investors to the Bond market and hence the prices of stocks have to be lowered to attract greater investors.

- Statement 2 is correct: Greater Bond yield of the USA government bonds encourages the investors to invest in them rather than other countries with lower returns on investments. Hence, any change in the bond yield of the USA impacts investment in other countries.
- Statement 3 is incorrect: Capital Gains tax is charged only when there occurs a sale or purchase of a capital asset. Hence, stocks or shares that are continuously incurring profits would not be subjected to the Capital Gains Tax unless they are sold.

- Statement 1 is incorrect: Recently, NITI Aayog and Rocky Mountain Institute of India came up with the report titled "Mobilising Electric Vehicle Financing in India". The adoption of Electric Vehicles would play an instrumental role in the protection of the Environment. In order to boost the demand for the Electric Vehicles in India, there was a reduction in the GST rate from 12 to 5%.
- Statement 2 is incorrect: Vehicle Scrapping Policy was announced by the Ministry of Road Transport and Highways. As per the provisions of these, Commercial vehicles need to be de-registered after 15 years. The same time limit for Private Vehicles is 20 years while that of Government Vehicles is 15 years. It also proposes incentives for the scrapping of the old and unfit vehicles and setting up highly specialized registered vehicle scrapping facilities across the country.

- Option A is incorrect: The National Food Security Act, 2013 aims to provide subsidized food grains to the eligible households. There is a provision of 5 kg per month per person of foodgrains for the priority households along with the 35 kg foodgrains per month for the households under the Antyodaya Anna Yojana. As per the provisions of the Act, the Central Issue price needs to be revised after every three years. This has not been done yet and is one of the reasons for the rising food subsidy bill of the government.
- Option B is incorrect: The Act outlines the responsibilities of not only the Central but also the state governments. The identification and the issue of license to the Fair Price shops is to be done by the State Government.
- Option C is incorrect: Shanta Kumar Committee in 2015 had called for the revision of the list of beneficiaries to reduce the number of beneficiaries covered. Increasing population has put tremendous pressure on the government's subsidy bill and hence there is a need to rationalize the scheme.
- Option D is correct: The rise of the food subsidy bill is attributed to the difference in the prices at which the purchase of grains at MSP is done by the FCI (Food Corporation of India) followed by its storage and distribution and that of the Central Issue Price (CIP), price at which these grains are provided for Public Distribution System. The CIP is much lesser than the cost incurred in its procurement, transportation, and distribution leading to higher food subsidy bill.
